The Joy of the Journey

The Joy of the Journey

When faced with a mountain have faith - you are not alone.
Be still and listen;
Follow the new path, for the goal is near.
It is just around the next bend.
Do not quit my friend, for if you do,
the joy of the journey will come to an end.
Have faith, the mountain will open allowing a passage through. If you believe in your dreams they will come true.
